

Hey guys...
IT'S ME, PRINCE THE DOG!

I should start by telling you, I'm no normal dog. I've had some crazy adventures. My life began in a doggy-training program. But then I became very sick and I never saw my trainer, Mr. Albert, again. I know he wanted to hear from me, so when I got better, I started to tell my stories by writing letters to him.

I ended up being adopted by the best family ever. They take care of my special needs, and we live in a cool neighborhood in Florida! I will share everything with you, from eating a gecko, to my squirrel girlfriend and I having the craziest time together. Just warning you . . . I get distracted very easily and excited a lot, so bear with me.

Lick, lick, woof, woof!
